Angler's Guide to Shore Fishing Southwest Florida (Angler's Guide) Les Beery, Kimball Beery

This waterproof pocket-sized book focuses on recreational and visiting anglers unfamiliar with this area and the fishing techniques that are most effective here. Over 30 destinations are featured with detailed maps and directions, aerial photos and specific lure and bait suggestions. In addition, there are detailed rigging sections, fish identification pictures plus beach and bay wading guidelines for safety and success. Reviews for Angler's Guide to Shore Fishing Southwest Florida "This little book packs a massive amount of useful information into an incredibly small package. With it in your pocket, you can go to a completely unfamiliar area and realistically expect to catch fish. For those who can't afford to hire a professional or can't book one on short notice, this book is the next best thing." -Josh Olive Publisher, WaterLine Weekly Magazine "I've known Les and Kimball Beery for many years. They are accomplished anglers who really understand fishing. They've hit a home run with this book. They tell you where to fish, how to get there and how to fish it based on their countless years of research. The average angler can be successful with this book as their guide." -Capt. Rick Grassett, Snook Fin-Addict Guide Service, Inc.
