Recovery of Money (Practitioner Series) J.K. Gatenby

A guide to the law, practice and procedure involved in the recovery of money, this covers every aspect of debt collection, from briefing clients on the basis of recovery and the drafting and formation of contracts, to procedure in the County court and High Court and enforcement methods. This new edition has been revised and updated to take account of the Insolvency Act and Rules 1986 and the Consumer Credit Act, and contains case law, precedents, and specimen letters. It contains an expanded chapter on the "foreign element" in debt collection, increasingly important now that the Civil Jurisdiction and Judgement Act 1982 is in force and it is illustrated with cases, precedents and specimen letters. It is aimed at solicitors, barristers, commercial lawyers, trainee solicitors, debt collection clerks, legal executives, and institute of credit managers.
