The year is 1989 and the flow of crack cocaine has flooded the black neighborhoods in every major and small city causing the most devastating form of self destruction ever in the history of black people. Adonis Edwards is just one in a million stories born out of that crack cocaine tidal wave of insanity. He leaves Compton, California with his girlfriend Jewel. They are running from Jewel's past and to Adonis' future. Now headed to the easy streets of Denver, Colorado. Adonis and his ragtag crew make it to Denver with four and a half ounces of crack, driving a 1977 Chevy Caprice Classic with a thousand dollars cash. From four and a half ounces he rises up to boss status holding major weight within the summer. Then in one fatal mistake he loses everything, including Jewel the only thing he loves in this life more than himself. Walk with Adonis and see how one man can get it all and then lose it and gain it all back.
