Encyclopedia of the American Revolution Mark Mayo Boatner III

Colonel Boatner's Encyclopedia of the American Revolution is the first complete, authoritative, one-volume reference book on the period of American history from 1763 to 1783, and it displays the same mastery of the material that lent distinction to the author's Civil War Dictionary. This 1,300-page volume contains, in alphabetical order, articles - some brief and some comprehensive - on the people, issues, and events of the American Revolutionary era. A number of eminent historians and scholars have worked with Colonel Boatner in checking every aspect - political and social as well as military - of this period.
