Love during war can often end too quickly. Sabrina, a brilliant and young government scientist discovers her world turned asunder one fateful day after falling passionately in love with the man of her dreams. Neither of them expects the winds of war to ensnare them in a whirlpool of tragedy, intrigue, and deception, or that the unrelenting forces of evil will dare to extinguish the magical light of their love. A conspiracy to destroy their fragile lives triggers a desperate mission so intense that nothing but devotion and a fervent drive to reunite can untangle them from a world gone mad. Although the characters are a bewitching blend of real lovers who survived the world's most terrible war, the incidents and situations woven into the backdrop of their affair are absolutely accurate to history. You become entangled in their battle-swept lives and the undying love they have for one another in this rich, sweeping epic love story filled with gripping action, beauty, and mystery. Written by the great and compassionate Pulitzer nominated author of WALLY: THE TRUE WALLACE REID STORY, CAN'T HELP FALLING IN LOVE (co-author Carol Dunitz), BROTHERS OF THE STORM, and THE SECRET OF THE ST. LAWRENCE LIGHTHOUSE (co-author Robert L. Willis.) You'll need a box of tissues for this one. Don't miss it!
