In the next installment of the Westbrook High Series... Amber is still trying to fit in by being Symphony's flunky. Whatever Symphony wants, Amber is right there to try and please because she wants Symphony to need her. Amber and Quincy finally make out but was it worth the consequences she had to suffer this time? Symphony finds out some of the most devastating secrets in her life while she reveals a little of her own. She's not letting anyone get the best of her, she'll do whatever she needs to do in order to make it out on top. Roman's worst fear of not being able to compete in this year's championship game has finally come true. Even though he may have been a betrayer the feeling is not so great when he may find the shoe on the other foot. Hunter still hasn't figured out how to fix her broken relationship with her father, in fact, things may have just gotten worse. Hunter reveals a secret that may shatter everyone's lives involved, including her own then she finally realizes she has no one's shoulder to cry on.
