Los culpables Alexis Romay

Alexis Romay ha colaborado con los espacios digitales Encuentro en la red, Letralia, Tierra de Letras y Penultimos dias, asi como con las revistas Encuentro de la Cultura Cubana y Letras Libres. Obtuvo una maestria en Lengua y Literatura Hispanoamericana en City University of New York. Su novela Salidas de emergencia fue publicada en España por Baile del Sol (Tenerife, 2007) y en Italia por NonSoloParole (Napoles, 2007). Vive en Nueva Jersey, con su esposa, sus perros y varios libros. En su tiempo libre ¿lo que equivale a cualquier momento fuera de Cuba?, escribe sobre la isla y otros objetos flotantes en su esquina virtual: Belascoain y Neptuno. Los culpables es un libro certero y conciso que revela sus claves desde las primeras paginas. El equilibrado viaje entre el desgarró, el lirismo y la parodia es puesto en escena desde el primer poema, que retuerce al máximo las alusiones a otros exilios, otras vidas y otras tragedias que marcaran al resto de los textos aquí presentes. En este libro todo sucede con fina sutileza y a la vez no nos sentimos solos en el juego de interpretaciones que el autor nos sugiere. Estamos obligados a interpretar pero el autor no juega a falsos enigmas, sino que mas bien se empeña en desentranarlos apelando a sus diversos registros poeticos. En medio de los versos hay alusiones veladas y no tan veladas a Jose Marti, a las fantasias de las izquierdas del siglo XX y a los desmanes del poder totalitario, a las letanias de las nuevas religiones que trastornan con una persistencia terrible la conciencia nacional de Cuba, y hasta a esos boleros que una y otra vez nos remiten a los seres amados. Este calculado despliegue tiene un unico trasfondo que reaparece a lo largo del libro como el motivo de una sinfonia, recreado una y otra vez de maneras distintas. Este trasfondo, que no es nombrado de frente sino mediante el perfil de los sonidos y la palabra, nos remite por encima de todo al enigma de la palabra poetica.
