The New Pastor (Bethel Community Church) (Volume 1) Sherman Cox

Perennial student Elliot James has racked up many degrees and is contemplating another to continue postponing life.

When his roommate forced Elliot to find a job, he applied for the secretarial position at Bethel Community Church. But, in a case of mistaken identity, the ranking church officer thought Elliot was the perfect candidate for the open pastoral position.

He must become a pastor in a hurry because the church is falling apart. The church needed a jolt and Elliot needed a job.

Find out what happens when a novice minister finds himself in the driver's seat of a church? Will the church find their perfect pastor, or will they send him packing?
