My Inspirational Journal for Grandmothers: Making Memories (My Inspirational Journals) (Volume 7) Susan Morgan

Do you remember all the cute, funny, touching things your kids said when they were young? No? Most mothers don't... and neither do most Grandmothers. That is where "My Inspirational Journal for Grandmothers" comes in. Each time you turn a page you will find another grandparenting quote – some amusing, some tender, some just plain good advice. And you will also find space for you to write down the latest things your grandchildren said and did that you want to remember for ever. Just jot down a few notes to remind yourself, or write out an extensive entry – the choice is yours. At the back you'll find a handy index to note on which pages there are entries or quotes you particularly want to be able to find again easily. Don't lose the memories of your grandchildren's sayings and doings. Record them here in this special journal and re-read them at your leisure. You may want to share it with your son or daughter at a later date, or to show excerpts from it to your grandchildren when they're older. You will certainly want to read and re-read it yourself. This is the perfect way to make precious memories.
