Arizona State University Students Tell It Like It Is

What do Barry Bonds and David Spade have in common? Sure, they're both fun to laugh at, but more importantly, they both went to Arizona State!

If you want a place that has what seems like infinite sunshine, the best nightlife and social scene you could ever ask for, and a wealth of academic choices and opportunities, then ASU just might be your school. In the heart of a growing city, Arizona State in Tempe has been a wonderful and special experience for many.

"I wouldn't have gone anywhere else for all the tea in China. Then again, I'm not a big fan of tea. Regardless, opportunities for students are amazing and out-of-state tuition is very cheap compared to most other schools. The education is top-notch, especially the business, architecture, public programs, and education departments. The campus is awesome, and the staff is very helpful."

But not every student is as satisfied, especially with ASU strictness, parking, and Tempe transportation.

"ASU Police are way worse about drinking than the Tempe Police. If ASU catches people underage drinking, they'll get a MIP (minor in possession) without a doubt. The Tempe Police are more concerned about drinking and driving than about drinking underage in general."

"Public transportation in Phoenix is a joke. If you come from anywhere that has a well-working public transportation system (Chicago, NY, San Fran) you will be highly disappointed and forced to drive if you want to go anywhere. Sorry."

Does ASU have what it takes to make you part of the "I wouldn't have gone anywhere else" crowd? Get the pros and the cons straight from the students' mouths.

Visiting campus isn't enough.

Read our ASU insider's guide and discover what it feels like to be on campus for 4 years.
