Preparing for Life and Career Louise A. Liddell, Yvonne S. Gentzler Ph.D.

Preparing for Life and Career gives students the tools they need to develop skills they can use throughout their lives and careers. Teens are challenged to learn how to develop and keep successful relationships, be a good family member, and contribute to their community. The responsibilities of child care, clothing care, and home maintenance—and how to handle them—are also presented.

- Organized into 27 chapters presented as short, easy-to-read sections.
- New chapter is devoted to transportation options.
- Includes many new photos and charts to stimulate interest in learning more.
- Interesting questions are posed throughout the text to encourage critical thinking and problem solving.
- Common Core activities encourage the mastery of skills needed for college and career readiness. Other chapter activities promote Journal Writing opportunities, Technology applications, and FCCLA participation.
