In this exposition of The Sacred Dance, Miss Ruth's deep insights come alive in movement, the body, and in visions of physical expression in sacred time and form which transform our lives and the world we share. Her beautifully evocative poetry, inspiring journal writings, and thoughts on the divine dance of life are interwoven with classic photo portraits of her great dances embodying Ishtar, Kwan Yin, Mother Mary (& many other archetypes) with simple joy and complex spirituality. She lived an interpretive life and shares with us the avenues of our own passage. Denis's book holds the reader in an inspired state. Beautifully illustrated.
