When the doorbell rang, she slipped into a robe and went to answer it.

"Hi, Mrs. Moran. I'm here to collect the empties."

It was eighteen-year-old Frank Lawson, the milkman. She smiled at him and invited him in. Frank was a cute guy and she sometimes gave him a coke at the end of his route. She told him to follow her into the kitchen and poured a tall glass of coke for him and a beer for herself.

They chatted as usual, but Connie found her eyes resting again and again on his crotch. There was a nice bulge pressing against his jeans, and for the first time she wondered if lads his age rutted a lot.

He saw her looking at his fly, and he pressed his thighs together and put his hands over his crotch. Connie giggled. "Don't cover yourself," she said. "Be proud of your manhood."

His face reddened, but she could tell he was pleased at the expression. She felt confident and in control. She could make him do whatever she wanted if she got him in bed. If she got him in bed! The thought, when it struck her with its full impact, startled her. Did she dare? Oh, God, he was much younger! But he looked so delicious!

Trapped in a sexually unsatisfying marriage with selfish husband Bradley, Connie yearns to practice all those lascivious deeds and devices she reads about in the pages of her erotic books. She is desperate for some real attention, from a man or men who can turn her on and lift her to the heights of orgiastic abandon. It's not long before she decides to take on a job in order to expand her sexual circle, and sooner still before she is gives herself over completely to libidinous and horny boss.

When she is introduced to a particular naughty swinging couple her horizons expand beyond her wildest and dirtiest imaginings. Partaking in group menages and lesbian liaisons, Connie learns that there is more to sex-life than just lying on her back. But hat happens when she returns home one day to find Bradley partaking in some extra-marital shenanigans of his own?

Written in a deliciously graphic prose and featuring lurid scenes of same-room swapping, multiple-men rutting and mutual gamahuching, A Wifey Free-For-All is sure to satisfy those a fan of sexual awakenings and inevitable action that results therefrom.
