Joy Wshand and her mother, Connie McMasters, have been blinded by life's unexpected turns. Joy's lawyer husband divorced her and implemented a pre-nuptial agreement Joy didn't remember signing. She was left homeless and penniless after twenty years of marriage. Connie 's husband died in a car crash deemed his fault. The other driver was killed and his survivors sued her for everything she had. With a little money between them and in Connie's old car, the two started out on a road trip from Minnesota to Arizona. they stopped at Las Vegas and won five thousand dollas, Connie lost half of it and a thief attempted to steal the rest. Joy ran when she was stessed and she became a witness to a murder as she ran in a remote park in the mountains by Flagstaff Arizona. She was captured by the murderer but managed to escape. Connie is a little person but determined to find her missing daughter. How did Joy scape? How did Connie survive without her anxiety pills? Could this happen to You?
