Terminal Keren Cytter, Nora Schultz

Terminal is an artist book conceived by Nora Schultz and Keren Cytter. Its title and logic follow Schultz's latest performance, Terminal + (2014) at Tate Modern in London, and the exhibition I m Honda (2015) at Reena Spaulings Fine Art in New York. Using Google's image search on the documentation of Schultz's work to create an unexpected narrative of digital associations, Schultz and Cytter also invited nine artists to contribute to this ever-expanding narrative. The new narrative deals with ideas such as authorship, copyright, surveillance, and documentation. It kicks off with Ilan Bachl's diary, continues with rippled text by Ulla Rossek, and ends with an item from the Daily Mail about a couple who share their home with a Bengal tiger.
