The creative possibilities are as boundless as your imagination, and the process is simple: just choose one of the 24 black-and-white images from the book, transfer it with a hot iron (only the black outlines of the art show), and then go colorfully wild with your fabric markers. In addition, there are two copies of a design that Chris has personally hand-colored. You can use the transfers on embroidery too, and on an abundance of garments and home décor projects.
