Fish De Jour (Bibliotechka Zhurnala Magazinnik) Alex Galper

Poetry. This first collection of poetry from an emerging Russian New York poet, FISH DE JOUR is a seriously funny and poignant exploration of the paradoxes of the Russian-American bohemian mentality. A true literary heir of the American Beatniks and Russian Absurdists, Galper manages to be simultaneously wild-eyed and wildly satirical, lyrical and absurd, diplomatic and offensive. His poetry has been published in numerous journals both in the USA and abroad, including Poesia, Poetic Voices, Struggle, Iota, Slow Trains, Pacific Coast Magazine, Koja, Pennine Ink Magazine (UK), St. Elizabeth Street Magazine, Language and Culture, Respiro (Romania), and Sentence 5 (UK). A bilingual fest, FISH DE JOUR contains the Russian language originals with English translations of all poems by Magazinnik and Igor Satanovsky.
