Popular Performance Plays of Canada: Volume 2 (Canplay Series)

This volume is the second of the illustrated series of Canadian plays – plays which have had outstanding success, and which are now being made available for reading, study, or production throughout Canada.

During the past decade Canadian playwrighting had matured and entered the mainstream of commercial theatre. Throughout the country playwrights are receiving acclaim and sold-out houses with productions in professional regional and summer theatres.

The plays in this volume were selected for their range of theatrical styles and their commercial viability. Production photos or original illustrations have been used to present costume and set ideas. Sound and light cues have been listed under technical information and included in the text. All plays have manageable settings and small casts.
