Millions of young women are donning jerseys and joining the game every day. But did you know that in the past, women were not allowed to be athletes? Luckily, due to the hard work, incredible talent, and the determination of strong women, these walls no longer exist. Countless female athletes, like Missy Franklin and Abby Wambach, prove that women have what it takes to compete at the highest levels. Girls everywhere are picking up the torch running, jumping, and swimming their way to athletic equality.
