A guide to writing, shooting, and editing a feature film in the digital age. When independent filmmaker Andrew Harter decided to make a feature-length action movie, he didn't let the $99 budget get in the way. The result: Full Motion Blur - quite possibly the greatest (and only) action movie ever made for $99 (Official Selection of the Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival.) In this book, Andrew explains how to write a script around existing props and borrowed locations. How to get people to work for free and love it. Most importantly, he breaks down the technical details of filmmaking so you can start and see your project completed. It's guerilla filmmaking at it's most extreme.
