Beowulf Retold: in poetic verse Andy Fenwood

A tale in poetic verse. A bardic rhyming script full of intrigue, ancient wisdom, and a reoccurring theme that has been with mankind for ages. Decode the riddles around a hearth fire, rediscover the strength of word patterning and the oral folk tradition which has roots in tribal Europe just as it does elsewhere around the globe. Reconnect to ancestral wisdom by remembering the heroes of a time all but forgotten. This telling is an attempt to engage the modern reader, story teller, poet, songwriter, performer, and vocalist in keeping an old tradition alive.
