Thanksgiving Bride: A Gift For Billy Terri Grace

William Billy Johnson and his brother, Martin, are pioneers of Platte Creek, a small but growing frontier town. All looks bright for the boys, especially when Martin finds a good woman and she falls pregnant with his first child. Then tragedy strikes the town in the form of a massive flood, carrying away Martin and killing his wife, Billy is left with a premature baby girl to nurse in his grief. Only the arrival of a stranger, a young lady named Anabelle, offers a ray of hope for the grieving cowboy. Thanksgiving is drawing close, but there seems little to give thanks for until the Lord works a miracle of love in the midst of Platte Creek. Brides For All Seasons Vol. II is a beautiful historical holiday romance series. Each book in the collection is a standalone story designed to warm your heart with seasonal love and romantic adventure.
