The Legend of Hawkwind (World of Marna) Adrian Drake

On the world of Marna, there are thirteen gods who watch over the people. These gods are worshiped by most of the races of the land. The proud and stoic Grom. The calculating and logical Anai. The playful and child-like Zithaen. The varied and adaptive Humans. On the lost continent of Telnir, a young savage priestess has a vision that will change her life and her destiny. The Great Beasts that her people worship are just aspects of the gods of the other races, and they are no different. Outcast for her blasphemy, the young priestess leaves her land and is thrust into a world of which she had only dreamed. Fantasy novelist Adrian Drake crafts a wonderful world abundant with dazzling battles, horrifying creatures, valiant heroes, and an unforgettable struggle for the fate of a world which is placed in the hands of a child. - J.L. McKenzie from The Wordsmith's Cauldron
