A superb addition to the series of all-color price guides dedicated to popular collections. Divided into two sections, “What to Look For” and “What to Pay,” Kitchenware answers the important questions collectors ask. From sculptural jelly molds to chopping boards, thousands of kitchen items are illustrated along with descriptions, prices, and market and collecting information. In addition to finding out about the rich social history that can be gleaned from such objects, collectors will learn to gauge price differences due to factors such as location, condition, or provenance.
