The year is 2048. Kansas City Police Detective Marie Castaneda is assigned an investigation that will change her life forever. What looks like a run of the mill derelict's suicide is much more than that. With her curiosity piqued by the odd circumstances surrounding the old man's final hours, the young police woman begins to investigate his past. What she unravels is a mystery that is sure to keep you turning pages. Set 40 years into the future, The Canal reveals America as a nation that is literally coming undone. Marie Castaneda takes a big risk in order to save her life.
