The Tennis Sourcebook Dennis J. Phillips

The Tennis Sourcebook, with its unprecedented amount of information sources on tennis, is designed to be used by sports historians, researchers, journalists, teachers, players, and aficionados interested in the sport and its personalities, as well as its rich and colorful history.

Coverage includes monographs, magazine and journal articles, master's and doctoral theses, conference proceedings, and annual reports written in English as well as French, German, Spanish, and Italian.

Separate sections list and describe standard bibliographies, encyclopedias, handbooks, directories, guides, and serials. The biography section includes players, coaches, officials, promoters, journalists, and innovators. Other sections cover tennis videotapes (VHS), and a comprehensive list of international tennis associations and organizations is provided. There are indices to assist the reader in finding information about individuals and associations.
