A Guide Through the Narrow Gate Raphayl Miles

The Words of Yahweh have been translated, interpreted and changed to meet the ever changing viewpoints of theologians and scholars for centuries. Far to often, the original meaning was lost or misinterpreted. The only way to understand the true Words is to examine in detail the texts as they originally appeared.

Drawing on extensive research, Raphayl Israyl Miles looks at the original meaning and context of what was truly said by Yahweh. With extensive source notation and citations, the reader can learn more about the material cited by the author.

Raphayl Israyl Miles, was born in Chicago. While incarcerated, he was given a book to read by Yisrayl Hawkins. Through a series of dreams, he was visited by a messenger who showed him that all those around him were spiritually dead. Upon his release from prison, he published this book in hopes of helping those around him to become aware of the true teachings of Yahweh.
