Excerpt from Christian Science and the Ordinary Man: A Discussion of Some of the Teachings of Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science

To those good people who are so constituted that they can see nothing in aught save "facts," by which I assume that they mean that which can be verified by sight, hearing, smell, touch, or taste, my advice is frankly, that they lay this book down without attempting to read it, for to those so constituted, it will be sure to prove only a source of irritation.
