Devil in the Detail (Butcher Boys) (Volume 4) Max Henry

Love will find us, and when it does, we have no control over who or when. “Guilt is bad, and sadness is bad, but regret is the sickly combination of both.” - Unknown It’s the little things that break us, but sometimes they can also make us. Little things like a droplet of blood on my foot. My world ended and started in that droplet, bled from a life taken by my hand. It changed, broke, fell apart, and never really came back together the right way. Ever since, I’ve done everything I can to protect those around me, distracting myself from the real root of my problem by concentrating on theirs. A plan that worked just fine, until I met Ramona. One look, one touch, and I could breath again. But she’s not mine to have. She’s old lady to a member of the Fallen Saints MC. And not just any brother—he’s the most psychotic man I’ve ever had the displeasure of knowing. Yet, I want her. I have to have her. Foolish? Maybe. Selfish? Definitely. But nothing can stop me from proving she needs me just as much as it kills me to wake up one more day without her. SEE WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT DEVIL IN THE DETAIL: “The writing is flawless and all the characters spoke to my heart.” – Lina “The plot is intricate, suspenseful, and definitely captivating.” – Melissa “It’s raw and completely addictive! A definite must read.” – Loves 2 Read Romance, Blog
